

My favorite Russian film

«Ice»

- ❑ My favorite Russian film is «Ice». This film was shot in two parts by director Oleg Trofimov. Movie genre is drama. But the first part of the film can also be attributed to films about sports.
- ❑ The first part of the film was released on February 14, 2018. This part tells about the main character of the film. Nadia Lapshina. Since childhood, she dreamed of becoming a famous skater, and despite all the difficulties, she was able to achieve her goal. In her career there were victories and defeats.

«Ice»

- The first part of the film was released on February 14, 2018. This part tells about the main character of the film. Nadia Lapshina. Since childhood, she dreamed of becoming a famous skater, and despite all the difficulties, she was able to achieve her goal. In her career there were victories and defeats. Trying to fulfill her dream, Nadia almost remained disabled for the rest of her life.

«Ice»

- ❑ But Sasha helped her to get out of depression and recover. Sasha is a simple, funny guy. He is a hockey player.
- ❑ This part of the film tells the viewer about all the versatility of life, teaches you to never despair and confidently go towards your goal.

«Ice»

- The second part of the film was released not so long ago, on February 14, 2020. It reveals the theme of the family, which was only slightly covered in the first part. The main idea of the film is that it is our family, whose people we love, motivate us to do good deeds and self-improvement.

