Dear Monica,

Great to hear from you again and I'm sorry for not writing for ages. I've been really busy with my exams.

Let me answer your questions. My favourite festival is Maslenitsa, because I can eat loads of tasty pancakes during this week. As for your second question, I don't think these festivals are very popular among young people today. Russian youth are more interested in modern culture. There are so many festivals in Russia because Russia is a very large and multinational country, and people in different regions have different festivals.

I'm glad to hear that you are going to apply to a University. Which one are you going apply to? Where is it located? What subject are you going to study?

That's all for now. Hope to hear from you soon.

Best wishes,
Amar.
