

The image shows a theater interior from the audience's perspective. In the foreground, there are rows of dark blue seats. At the far end of the theater is a large, brightly lit screen. The screen is framed by red curtains with a scalloped top edge. On the screen, the text "КИНО + РЕБУС" is displayed in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. The background of the screen is a light yellow-green color. The theater walls are dark blue, and there are vertical slats on the side walls. The ceiling has several recessed lights.
