

Top Unusual Jobs

How make a good report?

Presentation plan:

- 1. Beginning (начало)
- 2. Main part (Основная часть)
- 3. Conclusion (Заключение)

Beginning

Вводная фраза:

- We are going to tell you about (Мы хотели бы Вам рассказать о)

Main part (answer the questions and speak about your job)

- What is a professional sleeper?

A professional sleeper tests mattresses and sleeping aids and gives his opinion on sleeping products.

How do I become a professional professional sleeper?

To be a real professional sleeper you need to learn about this profession and get the right qualification.

What do professional sleepers actually do?

Professional bed testers test the following:

- mattresses
- quilts
- pillows
- sleep aids, such as room lighting and noise machines
- hotel rooms

Needed skills for a professional sleeper

There are a few skills you will need to have.

- The ability(способность) to fall asleep in different poses and rooms, usually away from home.
- The ability(способность) to sleep, when people are watching you
- No problem with sleeping
- The ability to detail your sleep quality in a report
- Good health and fitness skills

Where do professional sleepers work?

- They work in laboratories with scientists.

How much do bed testers make a year?

- The salary of professional sleepers is around $15,000 a year. However, it is based on numerous factors such as experience, location, company, and time needed.

Pros and Cons of being a professional sleeper

- Pros

You'll get paid to sleep!

You can receive medical treatment

You will learn more about your own sleep habits.

You can often get sleep products for free.

- Cons

You mustn't change your lifestyle (ie: no caffeine, no alcohol) for certain studies.

You will have to spend a good amount of time away from home.

You will need to find projects and work on by yourself.

You may have to wait for work for a long time

Conclusion (заключение)

- That's all we wanted to say. Thanks for your attention!

(Это все, что мы хотели сказать. Спасибо за внимание!)

Thank you for your attention!