ENZO FERRARI

Enzo was born on February 18, 1898 in Modena, Italy. In the biography of Enzo Ferrari, cars have always held a place of honor. Since 1919, he began to take part in auto racing (first Parma-Berceto). Then he became a test pilot for Alfa Romeo. After many years of fruitful work, Enzo was appointed Director of the sports division. However, the position did not become the limit for the active, hungry for speed and victories of Ferrari.

- In 1929, a major event occurred in the biography of Ferrari – he founded his own society "Scuderia Ferrari". Even before Ferrari started designing cars, he dreamed of the racing achievements of his team. And they were not long in coming. One of the best was the driver Tazio Nuvolari. For the first time in the biography of Enzo Ferrari, his team took part in Formula 1 in 1950. The following year, the team won the competition (the victory was won by Hoss Froilan Gonzales).
