Presentation goes off also fully automatically. As you like. Please switch on loudspeakers.

the strength of all elements

It is seldom that I send out this type of presentation but I found this one particularly impacting and thought provoking.

NO you will not have to send it out to 2,5, or even 10 people for luck, just sit back and enjoy the true meaning!

Love & Light, Luanne ☺

For you , October, 2005

The one who takes your hand but touches your heart is a true Friend

We seldom think of what we have,
but always think of what we miss

Don ' t cry because it ' s over now, laugh because it happened

The more precisely you plan,
the harder destiny
will hit you

What happens,
happens for a reason

A photograph of a waterfall cascading into a pool of water. The waterfall is the central focus, with water falling from a dark, rocky ledge. The water is white and frothy as it falls, creating a misty spray at the bottom. The pool of water is a deep green color. The background is a dense forest of green trees. In the foreground, there are several large, bright green leaves hanging down from the top of the frame, partially obscuring the waterfall. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

Make an effort, but remember,
the best things
happen,
when you
least expect them

The greatest events
aren't the loudest,
but the quiet
hours & serene moments

The most difficult lesson to learn is:
Which bridge in life to use or which one
to break off

A photograph of a snow-capped mountain peak, likely Mount Everest, under a bright blue sky filled with scattered white clouds. The mountain's peak is the central focus, with snow covering its slopes and some dark patches of rock visible. The clouds are fluffy and vary in size, adding texture to the sky.

Everybody sees you,
however, only some know who you are

He who would like to have something he never had, will have to do something well, that he hasn't done yet

Perhaps the universe wants you to become acquainted with many different people in the course of your life, so that when you meet the right ones, you can appreciate and be truly grateful for them

Plan for tomorrow,
But LIVE
for today

Love doesn't require
two people look at each other,
but
that they look together in the same direction.

(Antoine de Saint Exupery)

Life is drawing
without an eraser

I wish you always:

Air to breath,
Fire to warm you,
Water to drink and
The earth to live in.

I hope you enjoyed it and have a great weekend !
