

Revue de presse ...

Let's play together

Sport et cohésion sociale

Eleonora TARANDOVA

Forbes – Bulgarie

Marjorie NORNOO

Mondinsieme Intercultural Centre - Italie

And so what if Ronaldo is a “tapette” ?

Et qu’est ce que ça peut bien faire
si Ronaldo est un « faggot » ?

Nora SARGA
Magyar Liget – Hungary

Jean-Paul VITRY
Action Cinema Media Jeune - Belgium

Fabien Pujo & Alexandre Gasparotto
Coach of amateurs of Lormont & Physical training coach

Des champions comme les autres

Champions just like other champions

Delyan KYUCHUKOV
SEGA Newspaper - Bulgaria

Ludovic CLERIMA
Respect Magazine - France

« Selon son handicap, chaque athlète vaut un certain nombre de points allant de un à cinq. Ces points sont calculés en fonction du degré de handicap. »

« Un athlète valide compte pour 5 points, tandis qu'un paraplégique vaut 1 point.

La somme des cinq joueurs de l'équipe sur le terrain ne doit pas excéder les 14 points. »

No wannabe female Zidanes at Girondins of Bordeaux

Pas de Zidanes au féminin
aux Girondins de Bordeaux

Eduardo DEL CAMPO
El Mundo - Spain

Shirihuru EVANS
Near FM - Ireland

"If Girondins, where 'Zizou' rose to fame, becomes the last 'male-only' football club in France, they will look ridiculous"

Sylvie Rousseau, in charge of women soccer development for the Aquitaine region

Hidden racism in Bordeaux

Bordeaux : le racisme caché

Rossitza STOYKOVA

7 Days Sport Newspaper - Bulgaria

Celen OBEN

Star Media Group - Cyprus

“There is a hidden racism in Bordeaux. People don’t admit it but it is a fact. People are talking about ‘the blacks’ and how bad they are. When you try to find a job some would prefer the white candidate, no matter the education or expertise.”

Sylla Khabin, 23 years old

- Vous pouvez retrouver ces articles sur www.coe.int/mars

Revue de presse ...

Is photojournalism a way to fight racism in sports?

Le photojournalisme : un moyen de lutter contre le racisme dans le sport ?

Nora SARGA

Magyar Liget – Hungary

Jean-Paul VITRY

Action Cinema Media Jeune - Belgium

“My work is to talk about the sport but much more about the person but not talk about disability.”

Mélanie Challe has been a freelance sports photographer for 5 years

Shared goals across borders: European unions working for ethical, inclusive and diverse journalism

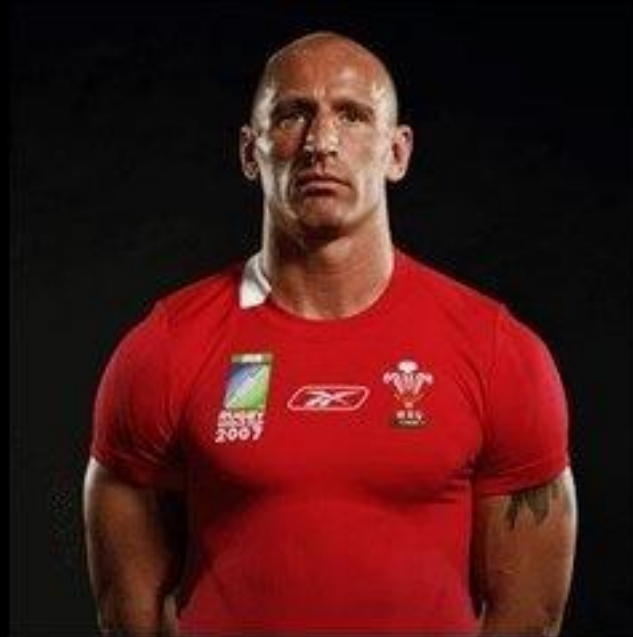

Svetla STOYKOVA

Union of Bulgarian Journalists - Bulgaria

Mike Smith

National Union of Journalists – Wales

There remains a very strong tradition of open sexism in European media, and more or less homophobic attitude, perhaps reflecting a lack a reflection on these issues

Former Wales rugby international Gareth Thomas came out in 1995

Foot 33: She likes it and she shows it on the Web

Foot 33 : Elle aime le foot et elle l'affiche sur la toile

Paul-Michaël Borgne
L'Echo des collines - France

Bruno Horta
Time Out Lisboa - Portugal

“They felt that amateur sport was lacking visibility in the mainstream media. Now, official numbers are about 3.000 daily pageviews. .”

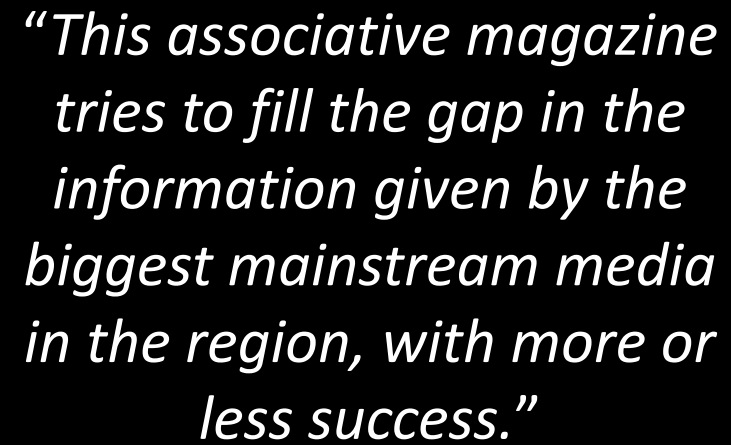

Marie-Laure Julian talks to the trainer Bruno Brancher, from Libourne football team

How to cover a local community's agenda? The Echo des Collines example

Comment couvrir l'actualité locale :
l'exemple de L'Echo des Collines

Pauline COMPAN
Saphir Media - France

Valentin TODOROV
Novi Iskar Online -Bulgaria

Can women write about sports?

Les femmes peuvent-elles
écrire sur le sport ?

Ilze VAINOVSKA
Kursas Laiks – Latvia

Regina GOUVEIA
Polytechnic Institute of Guarda - Portugal

CAN I
BE A SPORTS
WRITER ?

Do I
HAVE TO HAVE BEEN A
SPORTS WOMAN
TO BE A SPORTS
WRITER ?

WHAT WOULD I HAVE TO HAVE BEEN TO REPORT ON
PROSTITUTION
? ? ?

ILZE & REGINA

Chronique des Rencontres

Vous pouvez retrouver ces articles sur

www.coe.int/mars