

A festive New Year's greeting card. The background is white with a decorative border of various winter plants and berries. The border includes pinecones, green evergreen branches, clusters of red berries, and small blue berries. The text "Happy & New Year!" is written in a dark blue, cursive font, centered on the page. The word "Happy" is on the top line, "&" is on the second line, "New Year!" is on the third line, and a decorative flourish is on the fourth line. The text is surrounded by small black dots of varying sizes, creating a starry or confetti-like effect.

Happy
&
New Year!
A decorative flourish.

New Year is the main calendar holiday that occurs at the moment of transition from the last day of the current year to the first day of the next year. Celebrated by many peoples in accordance with the adopted calendar

2022

in different countries celebrate the new year in different ways For example In Japan and in Germany and in France

Although the whole country celebrates differently, their common task is to get acquainted with relatives and friends

