

The Bridge

A cartoon illustration of two brown bears standing on a bridge. The bridge is made of a series of circular stones. The bear on the left is looking towards the bear on the right. The background shows a soft, hazy landscape with mountains and a sky with a light gradient.

Tell the plot of the cartoon.

- What has happened?
- Where did it happen?
- Who were the characters?

- What happened between the moose and the bear?
- Why didn't they want to give way to each other?
- How did it all finish up?

- How did the moose react to the hare?
- How did the bear react to the raccoon?
 - Why?

- What did the raccoon and the hare do when they met?
 - Why?

- Who do you think was right in this situation?
- What did the author want to say?