CHRISTIAN IV'S BREWHOUSE

- Oldest buildings - about 400 year-old.
- Built at Slotsholmen Copenhagen by Denmark's most famous king, Christian IV.
- Originally constructed in 1608 as part of Copenhagen's military fortifications.
- Burnt down in 1632 and was rebuilt in between 1635-1636.
- In 1767 the building burned again and after the rebuilt it was used as a storage.
- In nowadays it's became Lapidarium in 2013, where old stone monuments and sculptures are shown.
