

Anton Shipulin was born August 21, 1987, in the city of Tyumen.

First, he led by his father was engaged in cross-country skiing, but seeing one in biathlon rifle older sister, hit on the idea to try his hand in the biathlon. Then in 2002, the son of parents staged in Khanty-Mansiysk Sports School coach Michael Novikov, under whose 15-year-old Anton and began his career in biathlon.

After 2 years, in 2004 the young biathlete returned to his native Tyumen and entered the Tyumen Law Institute. Having 2 victories on the European Youth Festival, Anton drew the attention of Vladimir Putrova, coach of Olympic champions Yuri Kashkarova, Redkina Eugene and Alexander Popov. Having received from the VM Putrova offer of cooperation, in 2006 Shipulin moved him to Ekaterinburg.

Before, the Olympic champion in 2014 in the relay, bronze medalist of the 2010 Olympic Games, five-time medalist of world championships. Winner of the Small World Cup standings in the mass start (2014-2015). The absolute champion of Europe among juniors, 2008. A two-time winner of the Race of Champions in the mixed relay, two-time winner of the Race of Champions in the mass start. Honored Master of Sports of Russia.

Predolimpiadny 2010 season showed that Anton is very confident in his abilities: the results of the season he was officially recognized as the best shooter among biathletes of the world, which enabled him to take a leading position in the national team.

With the support of the coach and the parents of his hard-working and striving for victory, he became the honored master of sports of Russia.

For many days, Russian biathletes were unable to get on the podium of the Sochi Olympics. Everything changed February 22, 2014, at the last day of competition biathlon. Men's team won "gold" in the relay. Alexey Volkov, Dmirtry Malyshko, Evgeny Ustyugov and Anton Shipulin took part in the final race of the biathlon. Thanks to the genius of the fourth stage Shipulina our guys got a long-awaited victory, because Russia has not won the men's relay over 34 years.

Галеева Кристина 8 в

