

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE

Florence Nightingale- Pioneer of nursing

Florence Nightingale

- Florence Nightingale was born in Florence, Italy, on May 12, 1820. The daughter of upper-class British parents, Nightingale pursued a career in nursing, despite family objections.

As a young woman Florence felt that God had called her to help others. She wanted to be a nurse but her parents did not want to her to become one.

Miss Nightingale in the Barrack Hospital at Scutari

Answer questions

- 1) Who was Florence Nightingale?
- 2) Where was she born?
- 3) Whom did she want to help?
- 4) Where did she volunteer?
- 5) What did she do in the hospital?
- 6) How did she become known?

- 7) Was she a famous person in Britain?
- 8) Where did Florence work after the war?
- 9) What did she establish?
- 10) What did she write?
- 11) Whom did she become?
- 12) Which role did her work play in her medical care?

Explain the meaning volunteered in the thousand around the clock established

Talk about Florence Nightingale

- place/date of birth
- early years
- later years
- achivements
- date of death

Why do you think Florence was called
“The Lady With the Lamp?”

How important was Florence Nightingale's work? (to write a few sentences)

Homework

Prepare information about Florence Nightingale and her achievements in the medicine

Ex.4p77