

St. Petersburg

St. Petersburg is one of the main tourist centers of Russia

There are many museums of palaces and sculptures of different architectural styles.

Winter Palace was built for Queen Elizabeth Francesco Bartolomeo Rastrelli in 1754 and was the main imperial residence

In 1917 - the Congress of Soviets was held in Smolny Cathedral, at which the victory of the socialist revolution in the country.

Cruiser Aurora

With his famous shot, he marked the beginning of the October Revolution of 1918.

The Bronze Horseman is a monument to the founder of the city, Peter I, on Senate Square

Peterhof is located not far from St. Petersburg. Its beauty is similar to the French Versailles. The fountains of Peterhof are world famous. The main fountain complex has 4 cascades and 176 fountains.