ART AND CULTURED

Anyone who's ever shopped for the perfect ensemble, knows that shopping is indeed an art form. There are stores to visit, endless trips to the dressing room, and then there's finding the piece de resistance—that special something which will sit over the top. The one who has just that piece, naturally has cultured pearls. In fact, you can't think of anything more precious than gold. It's art and cultured pearls all in one.

FIRST CLASS FLIGHT

What does the jet-set crowd in Beverly Hills adorn themselves with? Stellar wings, of course. The Dragonfly brooch from Van Cleef & Arpels is set in pink and yellow sapphires, with diamonds. They are landing on the lapels of 90210 society everywhere. At least that's the buzz on Rodeo Drive.

WHAT'S NOT TO LOVE?

Whether Downtown or in the Hamptons, a cosmopolitan and carefree attitude prevails. Translation: high tea in a designer tee—absolutely. Dior embraces this newfound elegance with a colorful mix of fall fashions. With genuine trouser suits in a mix of stripes, flowers and checks, and gypsy-embroidered jackets and accessories—it's a romantic collection of fantasy and fun. Who couldn't love that?

Round 'em Up

It's hard to believe Aspen used to be known only for its ranches. Today, while the summer may still belong to the cowboys—in winter, it's the snowbunnies who lasso the town. Donning a spectacular pair of Fendi shades to keep out the rays, you can often see them with their own branding iron in hand—in this case, however, it's a credit card in search of the perfect bauble.

Lunch Time

Even the professional shopper may find herself in need of a rest from the multitude of shops on Mil and Galena Street. A nice baguette with brie and a mineral water will put some pep back into your shopping step. Speaking of baguettes, a Fendi watch is the perfect accompaniment to your Fendi bag. Well, maybe lunch can wait after all.

SIMPLY MAGNIFICENT

The Magnificent Mile has never seen such magnificence. On a street where luxury prevails, this Barguzine sable coat from Zandra Rhodes, with cape collar and roll back cuffs, is sophistication at its finest. It also goes perfect with an armful of designer shopping bags. With something this exquisite in your closet, you may just wish winter came a little sooner.

club style

A dipped hat, lacy dress and drop-dead attitude—all are perfect ingredients for an evening of SoBe clubbing. Just make sure your fashion sense doesn't end there. Your cocktail is a true extension of your exquisite taste, so nothing ordinary will do. Therefore, ask the bartender to mix up a minty BACARDI® Limón™ Mojito. And don't forget to leave him a little extra green—that's the best way to show you're class through and through.

WITH ICE OR ON ICE

On a sultry summer day, donning a few of your favorite pieces of ice can be very cool. If you're really looking to show off your good taste, however, try sipping into something even more refined. With a whisper of orange, Grey Goose Vodka L'Orange is exquisite on ice, with some up in a French Cosmopolitan. Try one for yourself—
• 3 oz. Grey Goose L'Orange • 1/2 oz. Cointreau • dash of cranberry juice • a squeeze of lime. Diamond tiara is optional.
