

Tiger

Tigers are found mainly in the South, Southeast and Central Asia. Tigers are found mainly in the South, Southeast and Central Asia. A tiger's body is powerful and covered with thick fur of black and orange stripes. The location of stripes is unique for every tiger. Tigers have strong legs and large paws and a beautiful long tail.

The weight of adult males may reach up to 300 kilograms, and the length of the body up to 1.5-3 metres.

Tiger has a maximum speed 65km / h