Fat cat on a mat

Phil Roxbee Cox & Stephen Cartwright

Fat Cat sees a bee.

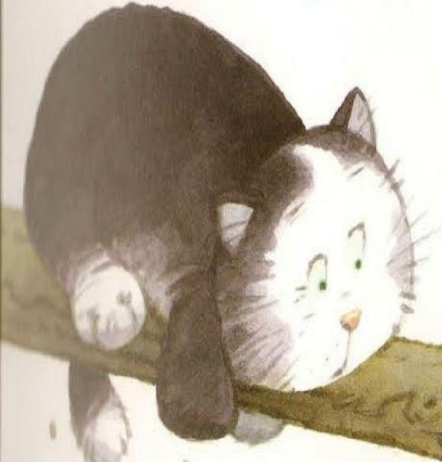

Fat Cat flees up a tree.
"I don't like bees!" yelps Fat Cat.

"I don't like bees and I don't like trees."

"I don't like bees or trees."

"Are you stuck?"
shouts Big Pig.

"Bad luck!" shouts Big Pig.

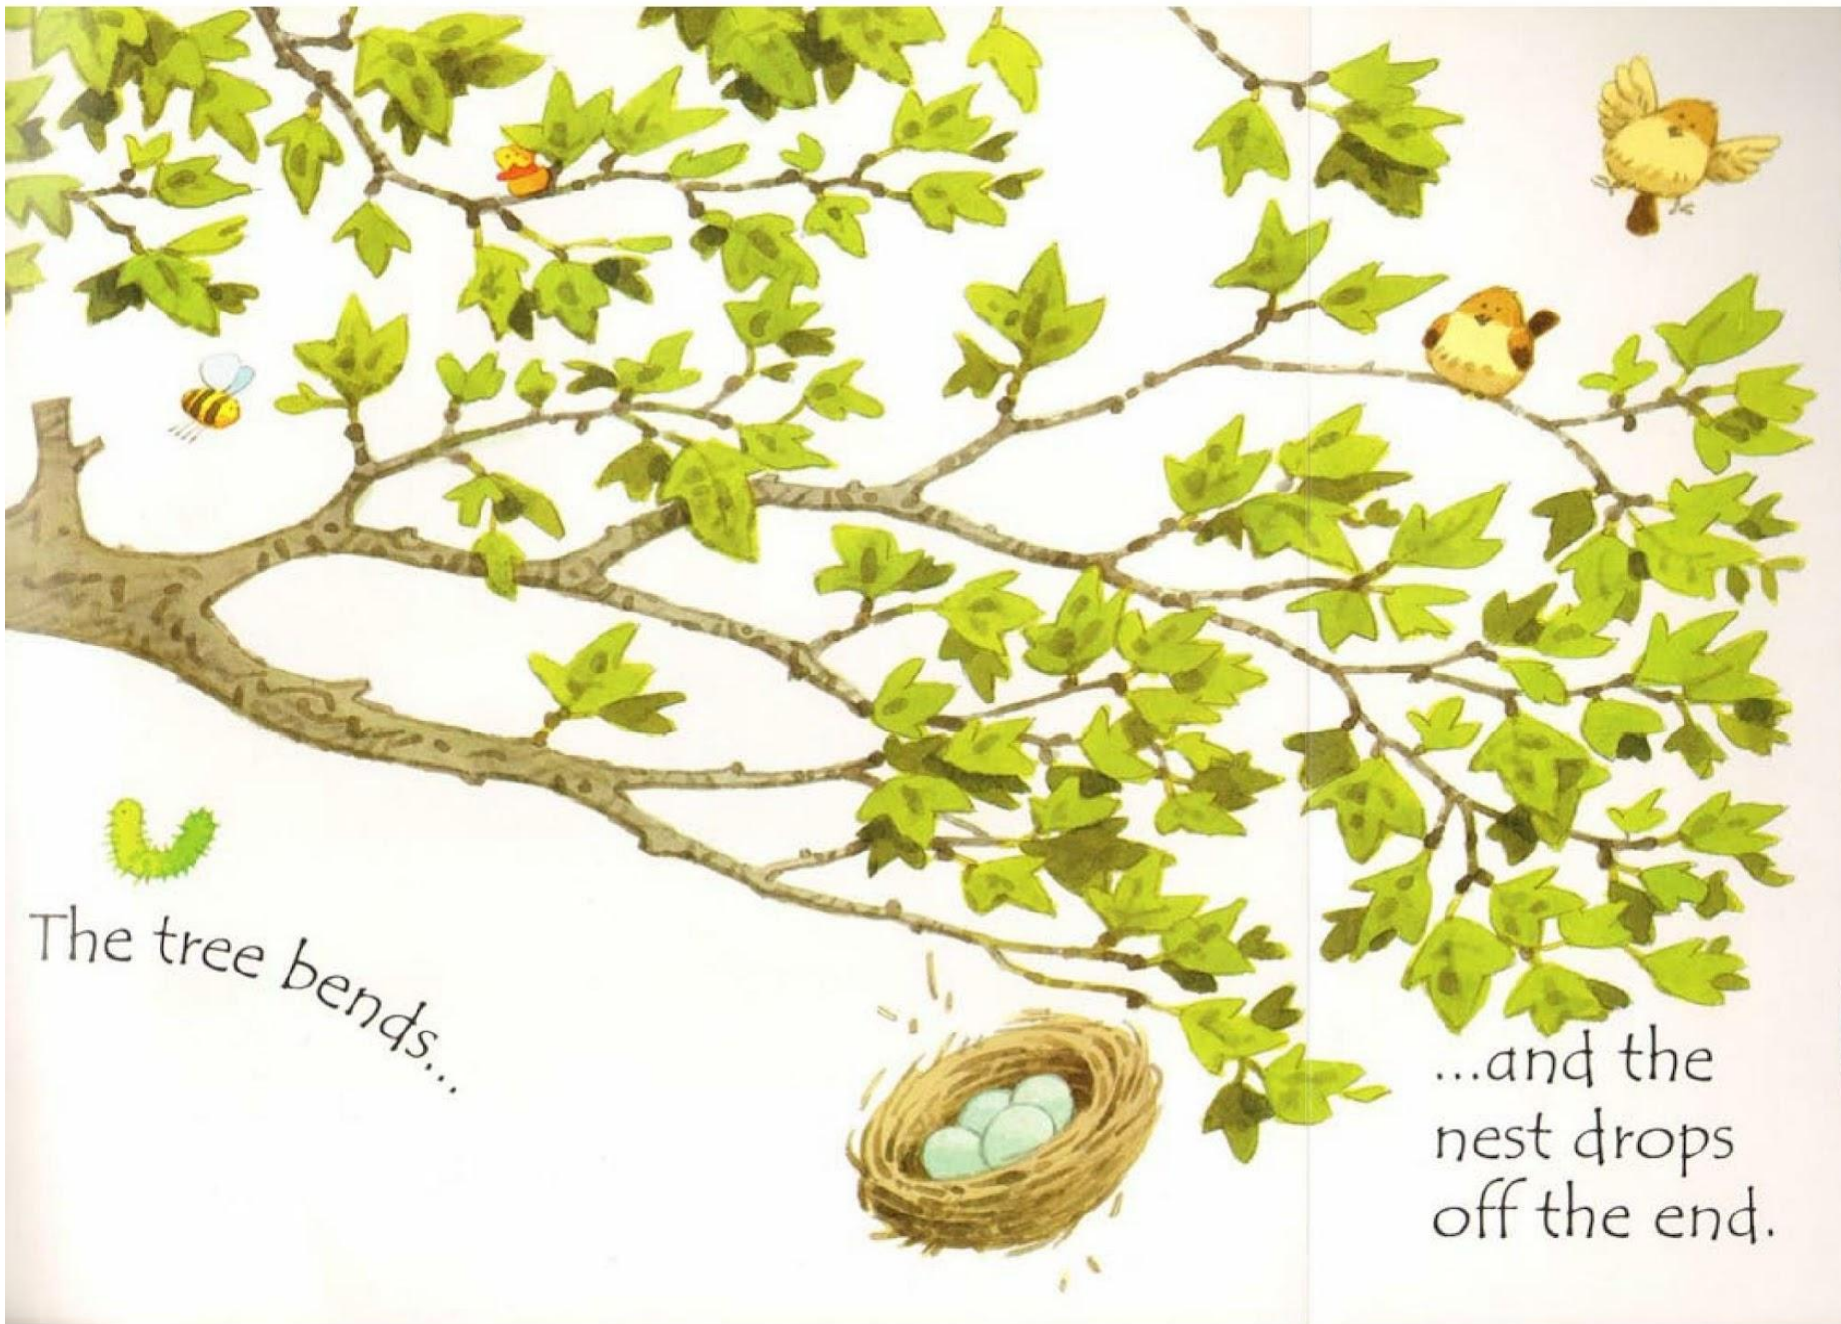

Fat Cat
groans.

"I am stuck.
It is bad luck,"
she moans.

The tree bends...

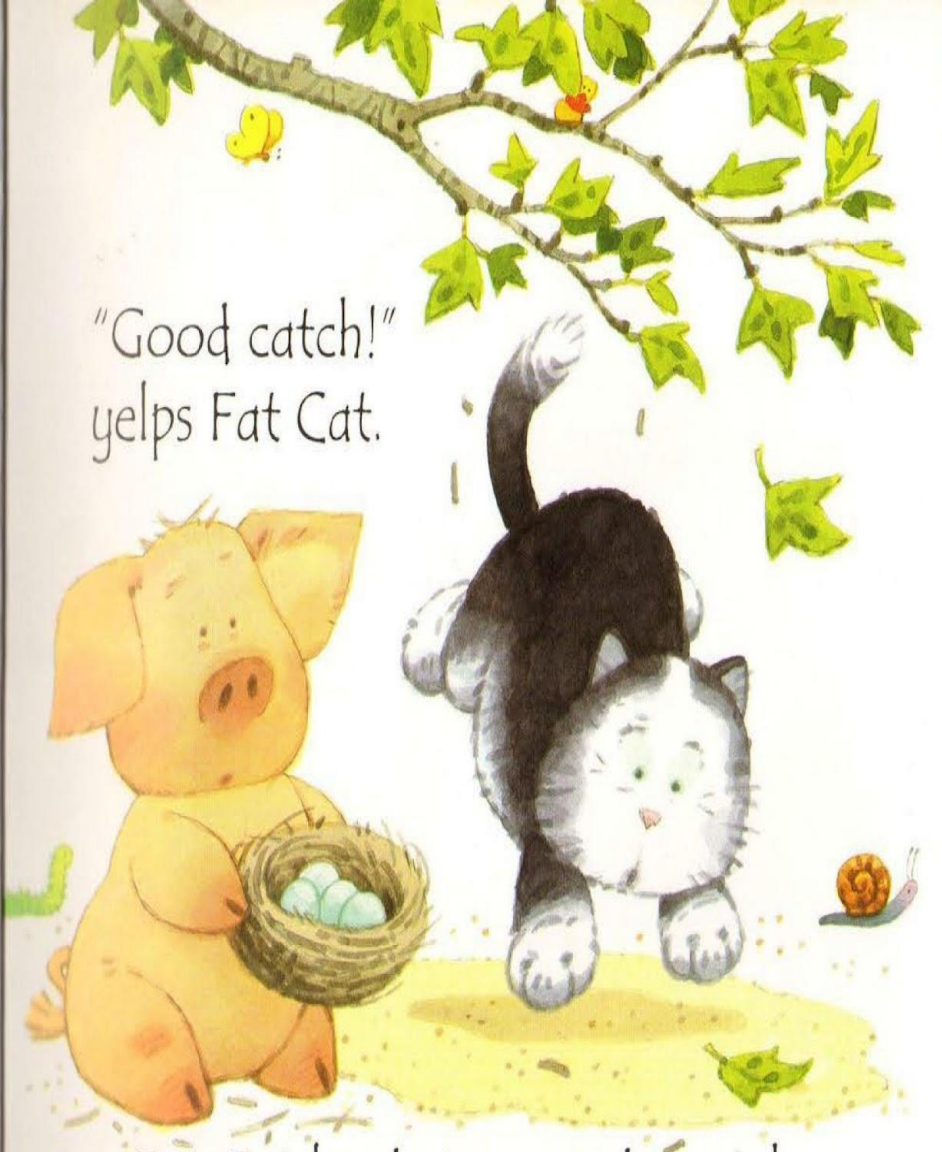

The tree bends...

...and the nest drops off the end.

An illustration of a large, orange pig standing on a sandy patch. On top of its head is a small, round nest made of straw. A black and white cat is falling upside down from a tree branch above. The pig has a small green caterpillar on its back. A snail is on the ground to the right. The background shows green leaves and a yellow bird flying in the sky.

The nest drops,
with a plop, on top of Big Pig.

"Like my new hat, Fat Cat?"

An illustration of the same orange pig sitting on the sandy patch, holding the nest with three blue eggs. The black and white cat is landing on the sand, looking surprised. A snail is on the ground to the right. The background shows green leaves and a yellow bird flying in the sky.

"Good catch!"
yelps Fat Cat.

Fat Cat lands in a sandy patch.
"I must help the eggs to hatch."

Next day,

Fat Cat will not play.

"Play with me!" says Big Pig.

"Not today," says Fat Cat on her mat.

"Bake a cake with me,"
says Jake Snake.

"Not today," says Fat Cat on her mat.

"Let's run in the sun for fun," says Ted.

"Not today," says Fat Cat on her mat.

"You are lazy," says Big Pig.
"You are crazy," says Jake Snake.

"You are no fun," says Ted.

"Shh!" says
Fat Cat.

"Stay away,"
says Fat Cat.

She hops up off her mat.

"It's the eggs
from the nest!"
says Big Pig.

"See the chicks hatch."
